

I oppose the weakening of Indiana's Telephone Privacy Act. When I get home from work for the day, the last thing I want is my phone ringing with (dis)"courtesy" calls from various business interests. I pay for my telephone service for my personal use - not for any business to use it.